KGU Broadcasts Aggies-Deans Stadium Game

COLORFUL SCENES AT STADIUM ARE CLEARLY PICTURED

Pre-Game Activities, Crowd, Excitement Flashed Through Air by Means of Tizer Wireless for Benefit of Its Friends

KUGU, HONOLULU ADVERTISER, Saturday, was right on the job to describe to the friends, the stay-at-home and fans on the other islands, the complete story of the early scenes at the Stadium just before the big battle between the Utah Aggies and the Utah Aggies, crack team from the Rocky Mountain conference.

With Ed Crane at "Iron Mile" in the press box and the good looking Bob MacIntyre on the phone, clapped to his head and using the tizer transmitter from a comfortable spot in the Aggie's dugout, the program scenes, and incidents were picked up from the air and typed ready for the composing men and the linotype machines.

All the color, the excitement that comes from a big game, was described clearly and dramatically, for the benefit of radio fans of Hawaii as follows:

The Utah Aggies, "The Aggies," were the only crowd to be playing the game. The Utah Aggies, "The Aggies," were the only crowd to be playing the game. The Utah Aggies, "The Aggies," were the only crowd to be playing the game.
