move over, grid world: Rainbows 10, Huskies 7

By BRUCE SPINKS
Advertiser Sports Writer
 SEATTLE — About it from South Island to Columbus to Birmingham to Baton Rouge. Make the town and tell the people in Nor-man and Tulsa and Palo Alto and Los Angeles and all the other cities of college football.
 Kick down the door and inform the world that Hawaii — the proud Aloha State — has something to show pineapple and hula girls. Make them listen.

Make them understand that the University of Hawaii has a football team. And if they still don't believe it, just tell them to ask the University of Washington.
HAWAII'S rugged Rainbows, spurred on by a mature, courageous back-breaking defense and a late-starting offense that got going when it had to, upset the mighty PAC-8 sides pineapple and hula girls. Make them listen.

also one of the most humiliating defeats for head coach Jim Owens in his 16 seasons at the Husky helm. And Rainbows left little doubt about the direction he hopes to take the Rainbows this season when he spoke to the team in the dressing room after the game had ended.
 "Men," he said, "I didn't want to try to convince you to win this game for Dave. But we did it in my home state and I think you know what it means to me."

Wide receiver Allen Brown grabs the 24-yard winning touchdown pass from quarterback Casey Ortes as Washington's Pedro Hawkins makes desperate attempt to stop the score in the third quarter.

congrats from Charley

Charley Clary, a former Big Island resident now living in Seattle, telephoned The Advertiser sports desk from Seattle last night to congratulate the University of Hawaii football team on its upset victory over the University of Washington.
 The excited Clary, a season ticket holder in the Huskies' football games, exclaimed, "That game did me some good. Tell that football team I was rooting for them. I'm sure they got toro up because I was in the middle of all these Husky fans. And I'm sure kicked the ... out of them, didn't they?"
 Clary said the Seattle bookmakers made the University of Washington 28-point favorites and he won $100.
 Concluded Clary: "I better hang up now. I might have a heart attack. My health ain't too good."

It's wide receiver Allen Brown again, making a beautiful one-shoulder catch of a 41-yard pass which moved the Bows down to Washington's 16-yard line in the first quarter to set up Hawaii's field goal. Defender is Washington's Bob Brownstead.

one coach elated, another embarrassed

SEATTLE — Hawaii head coach Dave Holmes called it "the biggest win ever for me." Washington boss Jim Owens said he was "embarrassed" and the Rainbows defense rightfully proclaimed itself "King of the Mountain."
 That was the post-game picture yesterday after the Rainbows upset the Huskies, 10-7, to stifle the college football world.
 "THIS HAS to be the biggest win ever for me," said Holmes in the Rainbows dressing room. "One of the biggest factors was the Huskies' inexperience. I'm glad we were able to meet them in their first game."
 The Bows started 13 seniors to nine sophomores and six juniors for the Huskies.
 Owens, starting his 17th season as head coach at Washington, was in an altogether different mood.
 "I have never had a lot of credit," he said. "They were very high and got stronger as the game went along. But I do not think this game is indicative of our team. I think we were all embarrassed."
 "Asked if he thought the Huskies took the Rainbows too lightly, looking ahead to their game against Duke next week, Owens said:
 "If we did, I saw no signs of it."

a gift for Francis
LITTLE, Kauai — How about that? University of Hawaii's amazing Rainbows upset Washington yesterday and as far as the citizens on Kauai were concerned it was a fitting birthday present for Francis H. Brown.
 Hawaii's Mr. Golf has lived 81 years on this planet and may be several thousands on others. But he was just as excited about the U.H. triumph as the rest of his friends here for his annual birthday bash.
 This is the fun golf tournament of the islands but it took some unusual doings to get anyone to talk about anything except the Rainbows.
 Like some of the girls competing in the tournament here put on a spectacular performance. A trio of the island's loveliest matrons decided the heat was getting to them at the Waialua golf course. So Lucille Denis, Bobby Lou Schneider and Ester Hart went skinny dipping in the ocean off the 10th tee while waiting for their turn to drive off.
 "And we didn't hold up play a bit," said Mrs. Denis after the cooling off.
 But still there was all that talk about the Rainbows. There was that after-the-game shot on TV when the jubilant Rainbows defensive unit attempted to carry defensive coach Larry Price off the field. Larry happens to weigh somewhere between 260 and 280 pounds and the struggle by the exhausted Rainbows was hardly worthwhile.
 As for the golf tournament, Father Lenn Scannell, who used to be stationed in the Air Force here as a chaplain, was the hero.
too tough for this league
 "Nobody 82 years old can play to a three handicap like he claims," said one of Hawaii's top amateur golfers before the tournament started.
 He had to revise that estimate because Scannell played like a scratch — one over par for 36 holes. And while that won't win any money on the pro tour, it whipped "all out of some of Hawaii's best golfers by 10 shots."
 But back to the Bows. There were a lot of wisecracks when broadcaster Chuck Leshey got a hit caught by his monitor when the Rainbows got their first touchdown.
 Casey Ortes is floating back, he's going to pass," pronounced Leshey with authority. "He's looking for a receiver. He lets the ball go. It's an incomplete pass."
 Meanwhile, the fans all over Hawaii were watching.

Reds wins in 10th, lead by 5 1/2

Louis Cardinals — They Perez, who began his way into the starting lineup, slammed a two-out homer in the 10th inning last night to give the Cincinnati Reds a 2-1 victory over the Atlanta Braves.
 The extra-inning conquest stretched Cincinnati's lead in the National League West to 9½ games over the Los Angeles Dodgers, who were 5½ leaders to the Houston Astros.
IN THE EAST, Pittsburgh's red hot Pirates again pounded the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-4, to keep their five-game edge over the second place Montreal Expos, who scored a 10-run, 4-1 win over the Philadelphia Phillies.
 Reliever Tom McCraw collected his third save in three days as New York Mets beat the Chicago Cubs, 5-1 in the opener of a makeup doubleheader. However, the Cubs blanked the Mets, 7-1, in the nightcap on the fine pitching of Rick Reuschel.
 Dave Kingman's two-run homer, his 22nd of the year, led the San Francisco Giants to a 2-1 win over the San Diego Padres.
 Perez, who led off the 10th, was the hero.

All four hooves are off the ground as Secretariat heads toward the finish line of yesterday's Marlboro Cup at Belmont Park. Secretariat won and matched a world record for a mile and one-eighth.

Secretariat wins, matches world record

NEW YORK (UPI) — It was a day of vindication and of exuberant satisfaction for owner, trainer and jockey when Secretariat thundered through the stretch of Belmont Park yesterday to win the $200,000 Marlboro Cup by 3½ lengths and equal a world record.
 Time after time this brilliant colt has silenced his critics with a tremendous demonstration. That was the story once again when he straked across the finish line above stablemate Riva Ridge in 1:45.25 for the 1¼ mile. The track still was wet from heavy rains Friday night and early yesterday.
 "SECRETARIAT was beaten in his previous race, the Whitney Stakes at Saratoga. Two days later he came down with a viral infection. I'm certain he had certainly had viral infection. Yes, at the time I had vindicated after all the talk about the 'Whitney' said jockey Ron Turcott in the winner's circle. "They said all we did was make excuses for him when he was beaten. The truth is that he was sick and this was the real Secretariat," the jockey said.
 Earlier in the year, Secretariat was beaten in the Wood Memorial and took circled that he was not quite as invincible as he seemed. But Secretariat came back to win the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness and the Belmont Stakes to become the first three-year-old male Thoroughbred to win the Triple Crown.
