

UOP defeats UH Wahines in NIVT play

WESTWOOD, Calif. — The University of Hawaii Wahines lost to eventual champion University of the Pacific, 15-5, 10-15, 15-3, last night in the semifinals of the National Invitational Volleyball Tournament at Pauley Pavilion.

UOP, No. 5 in the NCAA poll, upset No. 4 Southern California, 15-10, 15-8, 15-3, in the final.

UOP had beaten host UCLA, 7-15, 15-3, 15-

12, in the other semifinal.

"We were real tired, I think, and got off to a slow start (in the semifinal)," UH coach Dave Shog said. "We played well in second game but didn't seem to have anything left in the third."

The Wahines played four matches from 10:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. yesterday.

Pam Lawrence led the Wahines against UOP with eight kills. Lisa Straz and Lee

Ann Praine each had six kills.

UOP's John Magno had 18 kills.

"Our pool play matches were real tough — I'm real happy with our play," Shog said. "I think we solidified our (No. 5) ranking."

The Wahines defeated Wyoming, 15-13, 15-7, and Fresno State, 12-15, 15-8, 15-9, to finish pool play with a 4-0 record.

Hawaii then defeated Oregon in the quarter-finals, 15-13, 15-4.

He got carried away with the game

Oklahoma running back Spencer Tillman, noted for his long jumps into the end zone, got up but not over Missouri's line on the first-quarter play. The 12th-ranked Sooners scored on the next play, went on to win, 49-7, and boosted their record to 6-1-1. Details on Page 14.

Miami can all but clinch AFC East division title

United Press International

It's barely November, but the Miami Dolphins already are close to clinching a division title.

The Dolphins, the NFL's only unbeaten team at 9-0, hold a three-game lead over the New England Patriots and the New York Jets.

Miami plays the Jets at Giants Stadium today, and a victory would just about clinch the AFC East title for Miami.

A victory would put the Jets four games behind with six to play. It also would leave New England at least three behind. Since Miami at Nash...

The Redskins' great defense was never able to cage the beast. But it kept the game under control, stopping the Cowboys often enough to give the offense a chance.

And, as UH coach Dick Tomney often says, that is all the Redskins ask for.

The score was tied at 21 early in the third quarter when the Redskins forced the Cowboys to punt.

UH took over at its 44 and, four plays later, took a 27-21 lead on Paine

's 15-yard run up the middle.

The drive was spurred by a 22-yard screen pass from Cherry to Fletcher that gave UH a first down at the 34.

Paine then chucked up the middle for 11 and Fletcher ran the yard for eight, setting up the grab-and-go.

But the beast refused to submit.

Evans' 14-yard run with 12:47 to play tied the score at 28.

The rebound was on. The fun was just beginning. Thanks to Richard McNeese, 30-yard field goal, the fun lasted longer for UH. There was 31:28 left, setting up the grab-and-go.

But the beast refused to submit.

The Bone again.
