Aztecs rough up Rainbows

Faulk, Lowery put SDSU at controls

By Ferd Lewis
Advertiser Staff Writer

SAN DIEGO — On "Beach Party Night" at San Diego Jack Murphy Stadium, the University of Hawaii football team saw its immediate Holiday Bowl hopes beached by an offensive tsunami.

Running back Marshall Faulk ran for 300 yards and four touchdowns and quarterback David Lowery threw for 345 yards and three touchdowns as San Diego State pounded Hawaii, 52-28, and threw the Western Athletic Conference standings into a logjam.

The Rainbows, who are 5-2 along with the Aztecs and Brigham Young, can still claim at least a share of their first WAC title with a victory over Wyoming Saturday at Aloha Stadium.

But to make their first trip to the Dec. 30 Holiday Bowl, they will need a win over Wyoming and a Fresno State victory over the Aztecs. In case of a tie, the Holiday Bowl bid is awarded based on head-to-head competition. While UH has beaten BYU and Fresno State, which is also in contention at 4-2, last night's loss puts San Diego State in the driver's seat to its hometown bowl.

"We're still 7-2 (overall) and have a shot at a bowl (the Jeep Eagle Aloha Bowl), but this hurts . . . it hurts all of us," said a dejected Bob Wagner, the UH coach. "We wanted to wrap it up ourselves, right here, tonight, and we didn't get it done."

The Rainbows matched the Aztecs virtually score-for-score in a point-and-a-half-a-minute 24-21 first half that would have ended deadlocked had Jason Elam's 57-yard field-goal attempt not hit the crossbar. But Hawaii was little more than a speed bump to the Aztecs' offensive machine in the second half.

The Rainbow defense gave up 28 second-half points while

No. 7 Nebraska falls as Big Eight race tightens

■ Huskies, Wolverines in Rose Bowl C3

Associated Press

AMES, Iowa — Iowa State turned a brilliant defensive effort, quarterback Mary Seiler's running and four field goals by Ty Stewart into a stunning 19-10 upset of No. 7 Nebraska yesterday.

The Cyclones (4-6 overall, 2-4 Big Eight) shut down a Nebraska team that led the nation in rushing and scoring. Iowa State ran for 373 yards against a defense that had stuffed nationally ranked Colorado (52-7) and Kansas (49-7) in its two previous games.

Iowa State broke a 14-game losing streak to Nebraska (7-2, 4-1) and held the Cornhuskers to 192 yards rushing — 159 below their average.

Stewart kicked field goals of 37, 32, 45 and 30 yards to give Iowa State a 12-10 halftime lead.

Seiler broke a 78-yard run early in the fourth quarter to set up Chris Ulrich's two-yard touchdown run.

Nebraska can still win the Big Eight title and a trip to the Orange Bowl — regardless of what second-place Colorado does — if it beats Kansas State and Oklahoma.

■ No. 13 Colorado 25, No. 20 Kansas 18: At Lawrence, Kan., James Hill scored on an eight-yard run with 2:09 left as No. 13 Colorado moved a half-game behind Nebraska in the Big Eight race.

Colorado (8-1-1 overall, 4-1-1- conference) can go to the Orange Bowl if it beats Iowa State and Nebraska loses to either Kansas State or Oklahoma. Kansas (7-3 and 4-2) could end up in the Aloha Bowl if it finishes third in the conference.

■ Oklahoma St. 15, Oklahoma 15: At Stillwater, Okla., Scott Blanton kicked a 27-yard field goal as time expired to give Oklahoma a tie.

■ Missouri 27, Kansas St. 14: At Columbia, Mo., Jeff Handy threw three touchdown passes as Missouri broke a five-game losing streak.

Hulbert regains lead

Standly falls one shot off the pace

By Monte Ito
Advertiser Staff Writer

KAPALUA, Maui — Defending champion Mike Hulbert regained the lead in the Lincoln-Mercury Kapalua International from Mike Standly yesterday by shooting a 5-under-par 68 at the Plantation Golf Course.

Hulbert is at 13-under-par 204 after three rounds of the $800,000 tournament and leads Standly, the second-round leader, by one stroke. Standly shot 70 for 205.

Billy Andrade made the biggest move of the day, climbing from a tie for ninth place to third with a 68 that put him at 10-under 207. His round included an eagle on the 663-yard 18th.

Davis Love III, who lost in a playoff to Hulbert last year to finish in second place for the third time in this event, shot 72 and dropped into a tie for fourth with Mark Calcavecchia (69) at 208.

Hulbert, who shared the first-round lead with Love at 65, shot 34-34 with two birdies on the front and five birdies and two bogeys on the back.

On his birdies, he sank a 20-footer on the fifth, a four-footer on the ninth, a six-footer on the 12th, five-footers on the 14th and 15th, a 1½-footer on the 16th and two-putted on the 18th from 40 feet.

After two sunny days it rained yesterday and Hulbert said, "You could be more aggressive today. But the rain affects you because it is coming side ways."

Standly, who shot 66 Friday to move into first place, shot 36-34 yesterday. Two birdies and two bogeys kept him at 8-under after the front nine but he made four birdies against one bogey on the back to finish at 12 under.

"I played steady and I didn't expect too much; I wasn't going to rush it," Standly said. "You never know what it will take to win out here. We'll have some fun (today). If I don't win I'll have another day."

Andrade, who has played here every year since he joined the tour five years ago, eagled the 18th from 25 feet after making the green with a 4-wood second shot but said the ninth hole was the key to his round because he saved par with a 20-foot putt.

"I felt like I needed to make a move on the back side," Andrade said. "I knew I had to get to 9- or 10-under to get myself in position."

Andrade, a three-time All-American at Wake Forest, said: "I'm excited to have a chance. I'm happy where I am."
